CHAVIGNOL
François and Pascal Cotat
While the Cotat family has tended Sauvignon Blanc vines in the Loire since the end of World War II, it was not until the 1990s that François and Pascal Cotat took over wine making responsibilities of the Chavignol vineyards. What sets the cousins apart from their peers are their unique methods of producing luscious and long lived Sancerre. Vines are grown organically, grapes are harvested very mature, fermentation occurs in barrique, and the wines are bottled unfiltered and unfiltered.
The chalk-rich soils impart a steely and mineral rich complexity to the wines, while the late harvest and barrel fermentation add a glycerin-like sweetness to the rich and age worthy Sauvignon Blancs. Drink now or forever hold them in your cellar.

DOMAINE ROBERT CHEVILLON

While there are no Grand Cru vineyards in Nuits-Saint-Georges, the Premier Cru bottlings from Domaine Robert Chevillon have long been regarded as the finest in the appellation. The 5th generation winemakers Bertrand and Denis Chevillon produce wines of outstanding purity and consistency. Grand Cru status would only elevate the price, not the experience.
